An officer shall be deemed to have been convicted under this subdivision when trial court judgment is entered. For the purposes of this subdivision, "trial court judgment" means a judgment by the trial court either sentencing the officer or otherwise upholding and implementing the plea, verdict, or finding.
- (j) His or her refusal or neglect to file his or her required oath or bond within the time prescribed.
- (k) The decision of a competent tribunal declaring void his or her election or appointment.

Government Code §1770

VACANCIES IN COUNTY OFFICES

Member, Board of Supervisors (General Law)

The election of a supervisor to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term shall be held at the next general election, unless the term expires on the first Monday after January 1st succeeding the election. (Government Code §25061)

When a vacancy occurs from the failure of the person elected to file his oath or bond as provided by law, and the person elected is appointed to fill the vacancy, he shall hold office for the unexpired term. (Government Code §25062)

County Offices

- ❖ Assessor
- ❖ Auditor
- ❖ District Attorney
- ❖ County Clerk-Recorder
- ❖ Treasurer-Tax Collector
- ❖ Sheriff-Coroner-Public Administrator

The board of supervisors shall fill a vacancy by appointment. The appointee shall hold office for the unexpired term or until the first Monday after January 1st succeeding the next general election. (Government Code §25304)

If on the first Monday after January 1st following a general election the person elected to an elective county office has resigned or died, the board of supervisors shall provide that the office which was made vacant shall be filled at the next regularly scheduled election. The board of supervisors may appoint a person to temporarily carry out the duties of any office to be filled by such an election and that person shall serve until the results of the election are declared.

The person elected shall serve for the remainder of the term that began on the first Monday after January 1st immediately preceding the election. (Government Code §25304.5)

Terms of County Offices

County offices are up for election every four years at the Gubernatorial Primary and General Elections.

While the law for filling vacancies in county offices does not specifically call for a primary and run-off election should no candidate receive more than 50% of the vote, the decision in past vacancies has been to conduct the vacancy election as we would a regular election with a primary and general run-off election if needed as indicated by Elections Code §8000 and 8140.

A regularly scheduled election for the county is held in March (Primary) and November (General) of even-numbered years.

VACANCIES ON SCHOOL DISTRICT GOVERNING BOARDS

What Causes a Vacancy

Vacancies on school district governing boards or community college district boards are caused by any of the events specified in Section 1770 of the Government Code (see Vacancies – Definition), or by a failure to elect. A vacancy resulting from resignation occurs when the written resignation is filed with the County Superintendent of Schools having jurisdiction over the district. A deferred effective date not to exceed 60 days may be specified by the incumbent, in which case, the resignation becomes effective on that date. Upon being filed with the County Superintendent of Schools, the written resignation is irrevocable.

Education Code §5090, 5091(a)

Action Required by the Governing Board

Whenever a vacancy occurs, the school district or community college district governing board has one of two options available to it. Either of these two options must be exercised within 60 days of the date a vacancy occurs or the date of a deferred resignation is filed with County Superintendent of Schools:

1. Immediately call an election to fill the vacancy; or
2. Make a provisional appointment pursuant to §5091 of the Education Code.

In the event that the governing board fails to make a provisional appointment or order an election within the prescribed 60-day period as required by this section, the County Superintendent of Schools shall call an election to fill the vacancy.

Education Code §5091(a)

Although not required by law, as a matter of practice, a copy of the resignation, and copies of any notices, appointments, resolutions calling election, etc. should be sent to the Nevada County Elections Department as soon as possible.

Election Ordered

When an election is ordered, it shall be held on the next regular election date not less than 130 days after the occurrence of the vacancy or after the written resignation is filed with the County Superintendent of Schools.

Education Code §5091(b)

A regular election as defined by Elections Code §1000 is:

- (a) The second Tuesday of April in each even-numbered year.
- (b) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in March of each odd-numbered year.
- (c) The first Tuesday in March in each even-numbered year.
- (d) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in June of each odd-numbered year.
- (e) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of each year.

Vacancy elections shall be conducted in as nearly the same manner as practicable as other governing board member elections.

Provisional Appointment

If the Governing Board makes a provisional appointment, the appointee is immediately conferred with all powers and duties of a governing board member.

Education Code §5091(d)

Public Notice

Within 10 days of making the provisional appointment to fill a vacancy the school district governing board must:

1. Post a notice described below (See Attachment A for sample notice) in at least three public places in the district; and
2. Publish the notice at least once in a newspaper of general circulation published within the district (Gov. Code §6061). If there is no newspaper of general circulation published in the district, notice need not be published.

Education Code §5092

A copy of the notice should be sent to the Nevada County Elections Office.

Contents of Public Notice

The notice to be posted and published must state the following:

1. The fact of the vacancy or resignation and the date of the occurrence of the vacancy or the date of the filing of, and the effective date of, the resignation, and
2. The full name of the provisional appointee to the board and the date of his/her appointment, and

3. A statement that unless a petition calling for a special election, containing a sufficient number of signatures, is filed in the office of County Superintendent of Schools within 30 days of the date of the provisional appointment, it shall become an effective appointment.

Education Code §5092

Petition Calling for a Special Election

If a provisional appointment is made within the 60-day period, the registered voters of the district may, within 30 days from the date of the appointment, petition for the conduct of a special election to fill the vacancy. (See Attachment B for sample petition)

Signature Requirements: A petition shall be deemed to bear a sufficient number of signatures if signed by whichever means below results in the greater number of registered voters:

- 1 ½ percent of the number of registered voters of the district at the time of the last regular election for governing board members, or
- 25 registered voters

However, in districts with registered voters of less than 2,000 persons, a petition shall be deemed to bear a sufficient number of signatures if signed by at least 5 percent of the number of registered voters of the district at the time of the last regular election for governing board members.

Education Code §5091 (c) & (f)

Petition Requirements: Whenever a petition calling for a special election is circulated, the petition shall meet all of the following requirements:

- A) The petition shall contain the estimate of the elections official of the cost of conducting the special election.
- B) The name and residence address of at least one, but not more than five, of the proponents of the petition shall appear on the petition, each of which proponents shall be a registered voter of the school district or community college district, as applicable.
- C) None of the text or other language of the petition shall appear in less than six-point type.
- D) The petition shall be prepared and circulated in conformity with Sections 100 and 104 of the Elections Code.

Education Code §5091 (f)

Who Can Sign Petition: Only a person who is an eligible registered voter at the time of signing the petition or paper is entitled to sign it. Each signer shall at the time of signing the petition or paper personally affix his or her signature, printed name, and place of residence, giving street and number, and if no street or number exists, then a designation of the place of residence which will enable the location to be readily ascertained. A space at least one inch wide shall be left blank after each name for the use of the elections official in verifying the petition or paper. The part of a petition for the voters' signatures, printed names, and residence addresses and for the blank spaces for verification purposes shall be numbered consecutively commencing with the number one and continuing through the number of signature spaces allotted to each section. See sample petition. (Elections Code §100)

Petition Circulator: Each section of the petition or paper shall have attached to it a declaration signed by the circulator of the petition or paper, setting forth, in the circulator's own hand, the following:

1. The printed name of the circulator.
2. The residence address of the circulator, giving street and number, or if no street or number exists, adequate designation of residence so that the location may be readily ascertained.
3. The dates between which all the signatures to the petition or paper were obtained.

Each declaration submitted pursuant to this section shall also set forth the following:

1. That the circulator circulated that section and witnessed the appended signatures being written.
2. That according to the best information and belief of the circulator, each signature is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be.

The circulator shall certify to the content of the declaration as to its truth and correctness, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California, with the signature of his or her name at length, including given name, middle name or initial, or initial and middle name. The circulator shall state the date and the place of execution on the declaration immediately preceding his or her signature. (Elections Code §104)

Filing the Petition:

The petition must be filed with the County Superintendent of Schools within the 30-day period following the making of the provisional appointment.

The County Superintendent of Schools then has 30 days to verify the signatures. (Since there is no mention of excluding weekend days and holidays, the 30-day reference is 30 calendar days)

As a matter of practice, the Superintendent forwards the petitions to the Nevada County Elections Office for checking voters' signatures. The Superintendent may decide if the petition is to be checked using a random sampling in accordance with Elections Code §9115 or to check 100 percent of the signatures. A certificate of the results of the petition checking will be forwarded to the County Superintendent of Schools.

If the petition is determined to be legally sufficient by the County Superintendent of Schools, the provisional appointment is terminated, and the County Superintendent of Schools shall call a special election to be conducted no later than the 120th day after the determination. However, if a regular election date, as defined in Section 1000 of the Elections Code, occurs between the 120th day and the 150th day following the determination, the County Superintendent of Schools may call the special election to be conducted on the regular election date.

If any of the legal requirements are not met as to any petition calling for a special election, the County Superintendent of Schools shall not verify the signatures, nor shall any further action be taken with respect to the petition.

No person shall permit the list of names on petitions prescribed by this section to be used for any purpose other than qualification of the petition for the purpose of holding an election pursuant to this section.

The petition filed with the County Superintendent of Schools is not a public record and may not be open to public inspection. The proponents, however, may have access to the petition if it is found to be insufficient. (Gov. Code §6253.5)

Education Code §5091 (c) & (f)

Term of Office

A person appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold office only until the next regularly scheduled election for district governing board members, whereupon an election shall be held to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term.

A person elected at an election to fill the vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the term.

Education Code §5091(e)

A person elected at a regular biennial governing board member election shall hold office for a term of four years commencing on the first Friday in December following his or her election in November.

Education Code §5017

VACANCIES ON SPECIAL DISTRICT BOARDS

Action Required by the Governing Board

The district shall notify the county elections official of the vacancy no later than 15 days following either the date on which the district board is notified of the vacancy or the effective date of the vacancy, whichever is later.

The remaining district board members have 60 days immediately subsequent to either the date on which the district board is notified of the vacancy or the effective date of the vacancy, whichever is later, to either fill the vacancy

1. By appointment, or
2. By calling a special election

Government Code §1780 (a)

Appointments to Fill Vacancies

If the Board decides to appoint someone to fill the vacancy, the board first must post a notice of the vacancy in three or more conspicuous places in the district at least 15 days before the appointment is made. (See Attachments C & D for sample notice and application to serve on a board)

The Board must notify the county elections of the appointment no later than 15 days after the appointment is made.

The person appointed shall hold office until the next general district election that is scheduled 130 or more days after the date the district board is notified of the vacancy, and thereafter until the person elected at that election to fill the vacancy has been qualified. The person elected to fill the vacancy shall fill the balance of the unexpired term. If the term of office is due to expire following the next general district election and that election is scheduled 130 or more days after the date the county elections official is notified of the vacancy, the person appointed to the vacancy shall fill the balance of the unexpired term of his or her predecessor.

Government Code §1780 (a)

Elections to Fill Vacancies

In lieu of making an appointment the remaining members of the board may within 60 days of the date the district board is notified of the vacancy or the effective date of the vacancy, whichever is later, call an election to fill the vacancy.

The election shall be held on the next established election date that is 130 or more days after the date the district board calls the election.

Government Code §1780 (a)

A regular election as defined by Elections Code §1000 is:

- (a) The second Tuesday of April in each even-numbered year.
- (b) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in March of each odd-numbered year.
- (c) The first Tuesday in March in each even-numbered year.
- (d) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in June of each odd-numbered year.
- (e) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of each year.

If the District Board Fails to Act

If the vacancy is not filled by the district board by either making an appointment or calling a special election within 60 days of the date the district board is notified of the vacancy or the effective date of the vacancy, whichever is later, the following shall occur.

Within the next 30 days, the City Council of the city in which the district is wholly located, or if the district is not wholly located within a city, the Board of Supervisors of the county representing the larger portion of the district area in which the election to fill the vacancy will be held, may fill the vacancy by appointment or may order the district to call an election to fill the vacancy.

The election shall be held on the next established election date (see previous list) that is 130 or more days after the date the city council or board of supervisors calls the election.

Government Code §1780 (b)

If the District Board Lacks a Quorum to Act Within 60 Days

If the number of remaining members of the district board falls below a quorum, at the request of the district secretary, or a remaining board member, the Board of Supervisors or the City Council may waive the 60-day period during which time the district board is allowed to take action, but can't because there is no quorum, and move directly to the 30-day period where the City Council or Board of Supervisors may take action.

Again, the council or board may either appoint immediately to fill the vacancy, or may call an election to fill the vacancy.

The election shall be held on the next established election (see previous list) that is 130 or more days after the date the district board calls the election.

The board of supervisors or the city council shall only fill enough vacancies to provide the board with a quorum.

Government Code §1780 (c)(2)

If the City Council or Board of Supervisors Fails to Act

If within 90 days of the date the district board is notified of the vacancy or the effective date of the vacancy, whichever is later, no action has been taken by any governing body to fill the vacancy by appointment or by calling for a special election, the district must call an election to fill the vacancy.

The election shall be held on the next established election (see previous list) that is 130 or more days after the date the district board calls the election.

Government Code §1780 (c)

Term of Office

A person appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold office only until the next general district election that is scheduled 130 or more days after the date the county elections official is notified of the vacancy and thereafter until the person elected at that election to fill the vacancy has been qualified to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term.

A person elected at an election to fill the vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Government Code §1780 (d)

A person elected at a regular board member election or appointed in-lieu of election takes office at noon on the first Friday in December following his or her election in November and shall serve for four years.

Elections Code §10554, 10507

OTHER DISTRICTS NOT COVERED BY GOV. CODE §1780

Government Code §1781 specifically exempts certain districts from its provisions to fill vacancies in §1780. The Education Code governs school districts and the other districts not covered by Government Code §1780 are detailed below.

Municipal Utility Districts organized pursuant to Division 6 (commencing with Section 11501) of the Public Utilities Code follow §11865 in the Public Utility Code to fill vacancies on their board.

The remaining board members may fill the vacancy by appointment until the next district general election that is scheduled 90 or more days after the effective date of the vacancy.

The appointment shall be made within a period of 60 days immediately subsequent to the effective date of such vacancy. A notice of such vacancy shall be posted in three or more conspicuous places in the district at least 15 days before the appointment is made.

In lieu of making an appointment, the remaining members of the board may within 60 days of the vacancy call a special election to fill the vacancy. The person elected at such special election shall hold office for the remainder of the term in which the vacancy occurred.

If the vacancy is not filled by appointment as provided in subdivision (a), or if the board has not called for an election within 60 days of the vacancy, the board of supervisors of the county representing the larger portion of the district area in which the election to fill the vacancy will be held may fill the vacancy by appointment within 90 days of the effective date of the vacancy or may order the district to call a special election to fill the vacancy.

If within 90 days of the effective date of the vacancy, the remaining members of the board or the appropriate board of supervisors have not filled the vacancy by appointment and no election has been called for, the district shall call a special election to fill the vacancy.

A person elected at an election to fill a position to which an appointment was made pursuant to this section shall take office immediately upon issuance of the certificate of election by the secretary of the district, after qualifying according to law, and shall hold office for the remainder of the term in which the vacancy occurs.

Irrigation Districts with 500,000 or more acres subject to the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 22825) of Part 5 of Division 11 of the Water Code follow §22849 of the Water Code to fill vacancies on their board.

The Board of Supervisors of the office county shall fill by appointment vacancies in the offices of directors, provided that any such appointed directors shall be required to run for election in the next succeeding general district election.

If within 60 days after a vacancy on the board of directors occurs the board of supervisors has failed to fill such vacancy, a special election may be called by the board of directors and held in the division affected, for the purpose of filling such vacancy. In the event there are more than two candidates at such special election, only a plurality will be required for election. The candidate elected at such special election shall fill the unexpired term of the vacating director.

FEDERAL, STATE & JUDICIAL OFFICES

President of the United States

In case of the removal of the President from office or of his death or resignation, the Vice President shall become President.

Whenever there is a vacancy in the office of the Vice President, the President shall nominate a Vice President who shall take office upon confirmation by a majority vote of both Houses of Congress.

See the U.S. Constitution, Amendment XXV for more provisions.

United States Senator

If a vacancy occurs in the representation of this state in the Senate of the United States, the Governor may appoint and commission an elector of this state who possesses the qualifications for the office to fill the vacancy until his or her successor is elected and qualifies and is admitted to his or her seat by the United States Senate. However, whenever a vacancy occurs within a term fixed by law to expire on the third day of January following the next general election, the person so appointed shall hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term unless the vacancy is filled at a special election held prior to the general election, in which case the person elected at the special election shall hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term. An election to fill a vacancy in the term of a United States Senator shall be held at the general election next succeeding the occurrence of the vacancy or at any special election.

Elections Code §10720

Congressional and Legislative Offices

Governor's Proclamation: The Governor shall call all statewide special elections by issuing a proclamation pursuant to Elections Code §12000. In the case of a vacancy in a congressional or legislative office the Governor shall issue a proclamation, within 14 calendar days of the occurrence of the vacancy, calling a special election to fill the vacancy. A copy of the proclamation shall be sent to the board of supervisors of every affected county.

Elections Code §10700

Vacancies Occurring After the Close of Nomination: When a vacancy occurs in a congressional office after the close of the nomination period in the final year of the term of office, the Governor may decline to issue an election proclamation at his discretion.

When a vacancy occurs in a legislative office after the close of the nomination period in the final year of the term of office, no special election shall be held.

Elections Code §10701

Time to Call Election: A special election to fill a vacancy in the office of Representative in Congress, State Senator, or Member of Assembly shall be conducted on a Tuesday at least 112 days, but not more than 119 days, following the issuance of an election proclamation by the Governor pursuant to Section 1773 of the Government Code, except that any special election may be conducted within 180 days following the proclamation in order that the election or the primary election may be consolidated with the next regularly scheduled statewide election or local election occurring wholly or partially within the same territory in which the vacancy exists, provided that the voters eligible to vote in the local election comprise at least 50 percent of all the voters eligible to vote on the vacancy.

In no event may a special election or a primary election be conducted on the day after a state holiday.

A special primary election shall be held in the district in which the vacancy occurred on the eighth Tuesday or, if the eighth Tuesday is the day of or the day following a state holiday, the ninth Tuesday preceding the day of the special general election at which the vacancy is to be filled.

Nominations: Candidates at the primary election shall be nominated in the same manner as a regular election (Elections Code §8000, et. al.), except that nomination papers shall not be circulated more than 63 days before the primary election, shall be left with the county elections official for examination not less than 43 days before the primary election, and shall be filed with the Secretary of State not less than 39 days before the primary election.

Absentee Ballot Requests: Applications for absent voter ballots may be submitted not more than 25 days before the primary election. However, if the special vacancy election is consolidated with a statewide election, the absentee period will begin on the 29th day before the election as usual. Applications received by the elections official prior to the 25th day shall not be returned to the sender, but shall be held by the elections official and processed by him or her following the 25th day prior to the election in the same manner as if received at that time.

Elections Code §10703, 10704

Ballot Layout: All candidates shall be listed on one ballot. If any candidate receives a majority of all votes cast, he or she shall be declared elected, and no special general election shall be held. Or, if only one candidate qualifies to have his or her name printed on the special general election ballot, that candidate shall be declared elected, and no special general election shall be held, even if that candidate received less than a majority of the votes cast.

Elections Code §10705

General, Run-Off Ballot: If no candidate receives a majority of votes cast, the name of that candidate of each qualified political party who receives the most votes cast for all candidates of that party shall be placed on the special general election ballot as the candidate of that party.

The name of a write-in candidate shall not be placed on the ballot unless he or she receives votes in the primary election equal in number to 1 percent of all votes cast for the office at the last preceding general election at which the office was filled. In the case of an office that has not appeared on the ballot since its creation, the requisite number of votes shall equal 1 percent of the number of all votes cast for the office that had the least number of votes in the most recent general election in the jurisdiction in which the write-in candidate is seeking office.

In addition to the candidates referred to above, each candidate who has qualified for the ballot by reason of the independent nomination procedure in Elections Code §8300 et. al., shall be placed on the special general election ballot as an independent candidate. However, if two or more of these candidates are recorded on their affidavits of registration as being affiliated with the same political body, only the candidate with the greatest number of votes shall be placed on the special general election ballot.

Elections Code §10706

Order of Contest on Ballot: Whenever a special general election, or a special primary election, to fill a vacancy in Congress or the State Legislature is consolidated with a statewide election, the candidates to fill the vacancy shall appear on the consolidated ballot immediately preceding the candidates for that same seat in Congress or the seat in the Legislature that most nearly encompasses the same geographical area at the statewide election, or the elections official at his or her option may print a separate and distinct ballot.

Elections Code §10707

Governor

The Lieutenant Governor shall become Governor when a vacancy occurs in the office of Governor.

The Lieutenant Governor shall act as Governor during the impeachment, absence from the State, or other temporary disability of the Governor or of a Governor-elect who fails to take office.

Other State Constitutional Offices

Whenever there is a vacancy in the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Controller, Treasurer, or Attorney General, or on the State Board of Equalization, the Governor shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy who shall take office upon confirmation by a majority of the membership of the Senate and a majority of the membership of the Assembly and who shall hold office for the balance of the unexpired term.

In the event the nominee is neither confirmed nor refused confirmation by both the Senate and the Assembly within 90 days of the submission of the nomination, the nominee shall take office as if he or she had been confirmed by a majority of the Senate and Assembly; provided, that if such 90-day period ends during a recess of the Legislature, the period shall be extended until the sixth day following the day on which the Legislature reconvenes.

CA. Const., Article V, Section 10

Proposition 103, an initiative statute passed by voters in November 1988, established the office of the State Insurance Commissioner. While the Insurance Code §12900 provides how the person is elected, there are no provisions for filling a vacancy in this office.

In June 2000, the elected incumbent resigned from the office, and Harry Low filled the vacancy in the same manner as outlined above for the other state constitutional offices.

Supreme and Appellate Court Justices

Within 30 days before August 16 preceding the expiration of the judge's term, a judge of the Supreme Court or a court of appeal may file a declaration of candidacy to succeed to the office presently held by the judge. If the declaration is not filed, the Governor before September 16 shall nominate a candidate. At the next general election, only the candidate so declared or nominated may appear on the ballot, which shall present the question whether the candidate shall be elected. The candidate shall be elected upon receiving a majority of the votes on the question. A candidate not elected may not be appointed to that court but later may be nominated and elected.

The Governor shall fill vacancies in the Supreme and Appellate courts by appointment. An appointee holds office until the Monday after January 1 following the first general election at which the appointee had the right to become a candidate or until an elected judge qualifies. A nomination or appointment by the Governor is effective when confirmed by the Commission on Judicial Appointments.

Electors of a county, by majority of those voting and in a manner the Legislature shall provide, may make this system of selection applicable to judges of superior courts.

CA. Const., Article VI, Section 16(d)

Superior Court Judge

Terms of judges of superior courts are 6 years beginning the Monday after January 1 following their election. A vacancy shall be filled by election to a full term at the next general election after the second January 1 following the vacancy, but the Governor shall appoint a person to fill the vacancy temporarily until the elected judge's term begins.

MEMBER, PARTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE/COUNTY COUNCIL

Democratic Party / Republican Party / American Independent Party

In the event of the appointment or election to a committee of an ineligible person, or whenever any member of the committee dies, resigns or becomes incapacitated to act, or removes from the jurisdiction of the committee, or ceases to be a member of this party, a vacancy exists which shall be filled by appointment by the committee in which the ineligibility or vacancy occurs.

A committee may remove any member, other than an ex officio member if:

- The member misses more than three consecutive regularly called meetings, unless his or her absence is caused by illness or temporary absence from the county on the date of the meeting; or
- The member, during his or her term of membership affiliates with, or registers as a member of another party, who publicly advocates that the voters should not vote for the nominee of this party for any office, or who gives support or avows a preference for a candidate of another party or candidate who is opposed to a candidate nominated by this party.

The removal of residence by an elected or appointed member of a committee from the Assembly district or supervisor district from which he or she has been elected or appointed a member of that committee shall constitute his or her automatic resignation from the committee.

Elections Code §7212-7215, 7410-7413, 7657-7658

Libertarian Party / Natural Law / Reform Party

For election purposes, the Libertarian, Natural Law and Reform parties opted to utilize the provisions in the Elections Code pertaining to the Peace and Freedom Party (the party was disqualified by the Secretary of State due to low voter affiliation in 1998).

Therefore, the Libertarian Party County Central Committee, Natural Law Party County Central Committee and the Reform Party County Council in its sole discretion, may appoint such additional members to the county central committee as it may desire.

A committee may remove any member if:

- The member misses more than three consecutive regularly called meetings, unless his or her absence is caused by illness or temporary absence from the county on the date of the meeting; or
- The member, during his or her term of membership affiliates with, or registers as a member of another party, who publicly advocates that the voters should not vote for the nominee of this party for any office, or who gives support or avows a preference for a candidate of another party or candidate who is opposed to a candidate nominated by this party.

The removal of residence by an elected or appointed member of a committee from the Assembly district or supervisor district from which he or she has been elected or appointed a member of that committee shall constitute his or her automatic resignation from the committee.

Elections Code §7850, 7853-7855

Green Party

In 1992, the Green Party became a qualified political party in California and was authorized to participate in the primary elections. Although there are no written guidelines as to how vacancies on the Green Party County Council are filled, vacancies would be filled by appointment by the remaining members.

Whenever new appointments are made to county central committees or county councils, committees obtain Certificates of Appointments and Oaths of Office from the Elections Department. Signed originals are then filed with the Elections Department.
